

Oregon County/District Words 2013
Division 2

	WORD	SENTENCE
1	wharf	I love to walk along the wharf and look for sea creatures
2	troughs	The troughs of food for the pigs were spilling over.
3	reticent	He was rather reticent with his friend on the subject of his will.
4	proliferate	Developments continue to proliferate along the river.
5	percolator	The hall has a 60-cup percolator we can use for the party.
6	mystique	A ballerina can possess a certain mystique that we enjoy.
7	kerosene	That heavy machine is fuelled by kerosene .
8	hauteur	The guard was exuding an icy hauteur when he was suspended.
9	factotum	There were too many chores on the farm, we hired a factotum .
10	dissension	The topic of the meeting caused so much dissension we decided to halt the discussion.
11	concordant	My sibling and I are concordant so we spend a lot of time together.
12	bifurcated	Are you going to have the branches bifurcated in order to do the grafting?
13	ambidextrous	It was an advantage to have an ambidextrous fellow on our bowling team.
14	vestibule	Please wait in the vestibule until you stop dripping.
15	treacherous	They set sail knowing they would encounter treacherous seas.
16	respite	The park provided the respite we needed from our long drive.
17	preliminary	The preliminary draft will give them a chance to review and make all necessary changes.
18	parable	The instructor conveyed the lesson of life by using a parable .
19	migraine	I don't know if I have a migraine or a sinus headache.
20	journalist	The journalist asked people questions about the new law.
21	guinea	At one time a guinea was worth 20 shillings in Great Britain.
22	exurb	My grandparents bought a condo in the exurb area of the city.
23	disporting	I want them to engage in a disporting activity, like playing on the beach.
24	complainant	The complainant was taking legal action against the whole town.
25	beneficiary	The insurance policy stated that Bob was the beneficiary to quite a sum of money.

County/District Division 2
Tie-Breaker #1

	WORD	SENTENCE
1	altered	Our tailor altered the suit and now it fits like a glove.
2	vertebra	The crash crushed his dad's vertebra and cracked a rib.
3	token	Be sure to have the token facing up when you put it in the bubble machine.
4	reservoir	We can use the water in the reservoir for the car.
5	predicated	The value of the call predicated more of a calamity than a mere obstruction.

County/District Division 2
Tie-Breaker #2

	WORD	SENTENCE
1	ostensible	There was an ostensible truth about their story.
2	malicious	She had malicious intent and was planning to blackmail him.
3	exultant	The performance received an exultant ovation.
4	debut	The popular show made its debut only a year ago.
5	coincidence	Our meeting in Germany was pure coincidence .