

Lane Regional Teacher Pathways

A collaborative partnership supporting diverse teacher candidate scholars

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS!

Through January 31st February 9th!

Deadline Extended!

About the Scholarship

Pathways is a collaborative partnership between Lane ESD, Lane County School Districts, Pacific University, University of Oregon, Bushnell University and Lane Community College. These organizations work together to create affordable pathways for diverse teacher candidates to become licensed educators.

Awards

$2,500–$15,000

Program Goals

- Increase diverse educators in Lane County
- Leverage local strengths and talents
- Center racially, ethnically, and/or linguistically diverse candidates
- Reduce financial barriers
- Support career advancement

Fields of Study – General Education, Special Education, School Counseling, Speech Language Pathology, and English Language Development

Participating Districts – Bethel, Blachly, Creswell, Eugene 4J, Crow, Fern Ridge, Junction City, Lowell, Oakridge, Pleasant Hill, Siuslaw, South Lane, Springfield, Mapleton, Marcola, and McKenzie

