

Lane Regional Teacher Pathways

Scholarships for Future Educators

Lane Regional Teacher Pathways is a scholarship program for aspiring educators pursuing or advancing a career in education. In partnership with Lane ESD, Lane County school districts, Bushnell University, Lane Community College, Pacific University, and University of Oregon, the program provides scholarships ranging from $2,500-$10,000.

Teacher Pathways collaborates with local school districts and higher education institutions to recruit, prepare, and support educators with:

- Experience serving diverse and/or multilingual students and families
- Connection to the local community
- Commitment to building inclusive and equitable classrooms

Participating School Districts – Bethel, Blachly, Creswell, Crow, Eugene, Fern Ridge, Junction City, Lowell, Mapleton, Marcola, McKenzie, Oakridge, Pleasant Hill, Siuslaw, South Lane, and Springfield

Apply by April 19th

Questions? Contact
Zelene Flores at zflores@lesd.k12.or.us or Erika Case at ecase@lesd.k12.or.us

